MONSIGNOR JAMES COYLE HIGH SCHOOL

"The object for which this school is erected and will be conducted is threefold: Christian development, training and direction of the young boy's body, mind and soul. It is not in the elementary schools that these precious possessions of youth are threatened—it is in the high school and college where minds are maturing, faculties awakening and habits being formed, shaping the youth's whole future life both in this life and in the next. The Monsignor Coyle High School will aim to give every reasonable attention to the boy's growing physically: it will spare nothing to give him the ability to conserve, direct and develop his spiritual soul—rising above all physical and mental make-up. In a word, nothing will be spared to afford opportunity for the acquirement—up to college—of a complete and perfect high school education."

DEDICATION TO THE BROTHERS OF HOLY CROSS

IT'S GOOD TO BE HERE!

It would be quite an impossible task to assemble the pictures of the scores of Brothers who taught at Coyle in the last twenty-five years on this dedicatory page. And so we single out one to stand for them all—Brother Marcian, C.S.C., Coyle's first principal, to illustrate this page.

In 1933 the fathers of many of the present student body appeared at Coyle for registration. The strong, deliberate, self-assured smiling Brother Marcian handed out schedules, shaking hands with each boy as he passed. And the collective, mutual, intuitive conclusion those first Coyle boys drew gave way to a mutedly repeated, if not very literal attempt to share the agreement they enjoyed—"It's going to be good here."

Names like Joel, Jarlath and Harold ring the happy bells of memory. And the list could go along—Ralph, Dominic, Victorian and Theophilus. To every Coyle boy—past or present—some Brother comes to mind whose encouragement and friendship is valued beyond the ordinary. They were—and are—teachers of more than the fundamentals of learning; they gave part of themselves to all of us.

Today when the Coyle VIKING reaches the high schools and colleges of Holy Cross throughout America and as far away as Rome and East Pakistan, many a Brother long since gone from the big brown house on Summer Street will scan its pages with more than ordinary interest. Memories of his own days at Coyle, of boys called Reilly, Perrault and Souza will set him to reminisce. And perhaps others will join him, contributing their own memories to what is bound to be a long conversation.

And so for the high scholastic reputation Coyle enjoys, for your friendship, help and encouragement we dedicate our yearbook to you.

Yes, it's still good to be here and we know it will be so for the scores yet to come after us, thanks to you Brothers of Holy Cross.

A MAN TO REMEMBER

When Coyle High School opened its doors in September 1933 there were few students, if any, who had not at one time or other actually seen Monsignor James Coyle, the man for whom the school was named. The greater percentage of the student body were from St. Mary's parish in Taunton and remembered with awe "The Monsignor" inspired as he made the rounds in grade school, checking up on the progress in spelling. Others not so fortunate in having come so close to him had known of his reputation as an orator, if they had not actually heard him speak somewhere else in the diocese.

Today the average freshman who arrives at Coyle has little or no knowledge of the good Father Coyle. A depression, World War II and the post-war prosperity have clouded the past and dulled our appreciation of him. Yet we want to remember this man for the part he played in the story of our school.

For many years, Monsignor Coyle had been laying aside certain sums of money, gifts from members of his parish, to be used in the construction of a high school for boys. His parish had long been acquainted with the Holy Cross Fathers, who, at the Monsignor's invitation, had given missions at St. Mary's. Through his friendship with Father James W. Donohue, C.S.C., a frequent visitor to St. Mary's, he had learned of the Brothers of Holy Cross, specialists in secondary education for boys. He envisioned these educators as made to order for his school-to-be. The plans of the good Monsignor for the high school had reached near fruition when he died at the age of eighty on June 20, 1931. But his project—our school—had not been forgotten. The man who could fulfill the cherished dream of Monsignor Coyle—his bishop—had heard of it, and what is more he did something about it. Significantly enough, it was at the funeral of Monsignor Coyle that the announcement of the school's construction was made. Bishop James Cassidy in his eulogy made it known that the Monsignor's plans would be carried out and the school that he had wanted so much would bear his name. Monsignor Coyle's old friend, Father Donohue, now the Superior General of the Congregation of Holy Cross at Notre Dame, was only too happy to assign the Holy Cross Brothers to administer and teach at the new school, which was to be the Congregation's first permanent foundation in the East.

And so Coyle High School came to be the physical embodiment of an idea that would not die.

THE CLASSES . . .

The '58 issue of "The Viking" is not a record book for Seniors only. It is a book which not only records the events of the school year but also portrays, in so far as that is possible, the spirit of the school.

The spirit of Monsignor James Coyle High School is Catholic. Instruction and the related activities under the aegis of our school have their rise in Catholic principles. Ours is, then, truly Christian education.

On the following pages we have assembled what we like to think is a fairly good cross-section of Coyle life. We have gone into the classrooms with camera and an eye for the typical. Here you will find the faculty in the familiar atmosphere that you will want to remember them in during the years ahead, the classrooms that were your own for four years and classmates who studied, played and rode the busses with you at Coyle.

Brother Albertus illustrates a problem in force for interested physics students.

CLASS HISTORY — CLASS OF 1958

By Richard P. Grace, '58

In September 1954, there walked through the doors of Coyle High about a hundred and fifty new freshmen, lads of all varieties—tall, stubby, slender, chubby, and almost all happy as larks to be off on their new experience.

A single term had barely gone by when this class, with DeThomas, Purdy and company, had established itself as a group with considerable potential and a body to be watched closely in the future.

Although the varsity football team wasn't Coyle's greatest that first year, the freshmen gave notice that there were future stars in their ranks. Likewise in basketball and baseball, with boys like Jerry Coogan and Chico Sears, the frosh gained much attention.

December came and they experienced for the first time the Christmas atmosphere that captivates. It was quite an occasion, even though Longo didn't believe in Santa Claus.

The year was going by fast and soon the boys realized another yearly event at Coyle for the first time—the annual retreat, the first three days of Holy Week, spent concentrating on spiritual growth.

The Spring Concert, in May, with freshmen participating as members of the Band and Glee Club, gave the first year students a good idea of how high the caliber of the music is at Coyle. But people around Coyle long knew before this that there was musical talent in the freshman class, because 'way back in the fall, Eddie Correia had sent the assembly reeling with his distinctive performance of "Hey There."

June arrived and Presentations Day. The freshmen, not to be left out of the proceedings, collected many awards. Shortly thereafter classes came to a close for the school year and the boys put aside books and pencils to begin their summer vacation.

The class of '58 returned to Coyle in September, 1955, with one down and three to go. During the summer, Coyle High's popular principal, Brother Ralph, was transferred. Although this was a sad event, the students found consolation in the fact that their new director was Brother Eudes, well-liked and competent former vice principal.

Naturally, the first thing to occupy attention that fall was football. The season was an improvement over the previous and certain sophomores stood out as bright lights for future successes, while "Crazy Legs" Freccero rose to the position of quarterback.

The fall presentation of the Dramatic Club indicated that there was theatrical talent also in the sophomore class, as ably demonstrated by the effervescent Bob Bishop.

Christmas and semester exams passed and just previous to the annual retreat, in March, Taunton and vinicity experienced a blizzard which gave students an extra week away from school.

The declamation awards that spring all went to sophomores—Fitzsimmons, Grace and McAloon.

Later in the spring, the sophomores had their very own night of fun at Coyle—the bunko party. Although everyone didn't go home with a prize, all had fun playing the game and afterwards enjoyed the refreshments served.

Once more the presentation of awards heralded the approaching end of the school year and soon the boys were off for the summer.

Juniors now, and halfway there, the Class of '58 came back to Coyle in September, 1956, for another year of active school life.

The football team, co-captained by Bob Freccero and Dave Yelle, sported a winning season, which served as a prelude for the next year's season. The fall play, in October, presented further proof of the Juniors' dramatic ability by the large number of them cast in prominent roles.

Late in the fall, preparations began for the Junior Prom with Brother John Kuchenbrod, C.S.C., as director, and Dave McMurrow as chairman. Christmas passed, and on the following day, the object of many hours of hard work was realized—the Junior Prom, having as its theme "A Winter Wonderland." The dance was attended by a hundred and twenty-five couples and proved to be the event of the year. Those present delighted in the ecstatic atmosphere provided by the stunning decorations and the intoxicating music of Henry Cottrell and his orchestra.

Back to school after the Christmas vacation, and the days were flying by—mid-year exams, the retreat, Easter vacation. The end of April rolled around and with it came the gleam of footlights, bright music, the glitter of costumes, and all the other fascinating features of show business. The newly organized Coyle Student Theater, under the direction of Brother Richard MacDonald, C.S.C., presented a production to rival the television spectaculars—"Seventeen" —and from it came Coyle's answer to Sir Lawrence Olivier, namely, Dick McMurrow.

May went by quickly and at the beginning of June a new event was added to the calendar at Coyle. Honor Night was instituted, a night set aside near the end of the school year to honor students worthy of recognition for academic and co-curricular achievements. Very proudly, the Junior Class, with nine members being honored, boasted the "Outstanding Coyle Man of the Year," Dave DeThomas.

About a week later, the Juniors set out for a day at Cathedral Camp and their Junior Outing. The day was filled with fun, including softball, swimming, and a volleyball game between the students and faculty. Of course the foot added to the enjoyment of also, but perhaps the highlight of the day was the appearance of Mr. Griffin at the waterfront.

Not too long after that, another school year closed at Coyle and the boys left with summer vacation looming ahead of them, long and fun-filled.

September, 1957, saw the class of '58 returning for its last year. They were considerably changed from the green freshmen of three years before. At last they were seniors.

That year's football team was one that will be remembered for many years at Coyle. The squad, composed of many seniors, cooperating brilliantly with juniors and sophomores, returned home from eight games with eight victories. A fitting present for Mr. Burns' twenty-fifth year as coach of the Blue and Gold. The season was so successful that even the staunch lineman, Kev Welch, got to carry the ball fifteen yards—a dark day in the history of Durfee football.

That season didn't only bring home an unblemished record but also saw the return of the old spirit of the Warriors, the zeal typical of former wearers of the Blue and Gold.

Along with the other big things doing at Coyle that fall, another new feature—Parents' Night—was instituted. The event, with fathers and mothers attending their son's classes for short periods, proved quite successful.

Just after Thanksgiving, the Student Theater put on another extravaganza, a musical comedy entitled "Happy Days." Perhaps the biggest surprise of this production was the uncovering of Steve Turkalo's dramatic ability, since he had previously been famed mostly for his accomplishments on the gridiron.

Christmas came soon and passed, and shortly the semester drew to a close. It was the end of January and seniors were applying to colleges and making other preparations for their departure from Coyle, even though ahead of them still were the spring play, the retreat, the concert, Honor Night, the Senior Outing at Cathedral Camp, the senior Prom and finally graduation.

On June 16, 1958, one hundred sixteen seniors will be graduated, but that will not be the end of this story. It will merely be the start of a new chapter, a more expansive chapter on the contents of which we can only speculate.

Mr. and Mrs. Baxter keep a weather eye on Willie, whose Indiana summer caused them many a headache and heartache.

"SEVENTEEN"

Indianapolis in 1907 . . . a boy's first girl . . . summertime . . . these are the ingredients Booth Tarkington used in writing "Seventeen," a famous book, a popular musical on Broadway and, in the Spring of '57, a musical at Coyle.

Directed by Brother Richard MacDonald, the cast included twenty-three St. Mary's girls, and twenty-five Coylemen.

A capacity crowd on the two evenings it played, the fine musical background of Brother Albertus, C.S.C., and the detailed execution of the scenic backgrounds by Brother John Kuchenbrod and Dan Nerney made "Seventeen" the event of the semester.

The colorful costumes were made by Mrs. H. Demers, Mrs. F. Doyle, Mrs. F. Aranjo, Mrs. E. Murphy, Mrs. F. Martin, Mrs. J. Flood, Mrs. W. Hall and Mrs. J. Egan.

Mr. Joseph Scanlon's managing of the tickets also contributed greatly to the success of the play.

Little Jane dutifully reports Willie's strange behavior to her perplexed parents.

Willie meets Lola and revises his plans for the summer.

COYLE THEATER PRESENTS "HAPPY DAYS"

On December 2nd and 3rd, under the direction of Brother Richard MacDonald, a cast of Coylemen and St. Mary's girls staged "Happy Days," a musical written by Brother Richard on college life in the twenties.

Coburn College, situated somewhere in the Mid-west, proved an excellent locale for the lively music of the twenties. Add to this a crucial football game and you have a guaranteed hit. Two months of work brought the show to as close to perfection as possible. The students did a fine job of recreating for their parents a bit of the lively atmosphere of their own school days.

The evening's entertainment was further heightened by the musical arrangements of Brother Albertus and his able music makers, C. Rabello, J. Dutra, J. Sparks, J. Silva and D. Paquin. Intermission music was played by A. Giard at the console of his own Hammond organ.

Colorful and authentic costumes were created by a team of devoted Coyle mothers—Mrs. F. Aranjo, Mrs. J. Egan, Mrs. Helen Donohue, Mrs. H. Demers, Mrs. J. Flood, Mrs. D. Robbins and Mrs. T. Spillane. Wardrobe and make-up was under Mrs. L. LaBrecque.

The annual retreat was held on the first three days of Holy Week. During these days books and lessons were set aside, forgotten in an attempt to put first things first. Retreat activities included Holy Mass, time for spiritual reading and conferences by the retreat master, Father Salvatore Fink, O.F.M. At the conclusion of the retreat, the Papal Blessing was bestowed on all.

YOUNG CHRISTIAN STUDENTS

Y. C. S. means high school students working together in small groups in the school to make better and happier lives for other young people in the school and neighborhood. To say it another way, Y.C.S. is a specialized movement of the lay apostolate for high schoolers organized to shape a healthy attitude and habits at school, at home, in the neighborhood, at work and at play. The groups are small so that all have a chance to speak about the things that affect their daily lives.

At meetings those things are discussed which are part of daily life; study, recreation, work, friendship, home life, dating, school activities and parish life.

At each meeting a few lines of the Gospel are discussed to give a down-to-earth understanding of what Christ's teachings mean in everyday life. The next few minutes are spent in discussing the Mass, the Sacraments, or some other elements of the Liturgy. Then, for some forty minutes, actual local situations affecting the lives of young people every day are discussed. Members decide whether there is a need for a change in the existing pattern to bring it more in accord with Christ's teachings. If so, they figure out what action can be taken. Talk is converted into action. Projects are planned.

There are no speeches, no lectures. Y.C.S. believes that you are too important to be used merely as a passive listener to someone else's plans and ideas. At a Y.C.S. meeting you are treated as you deserve to be treated—you are listened to. For this reason the group discussion method is used and the group gets the benefit of the experience and thinking of all members.

It all leads to a fuller Christian life. Projects provide the training ground for leadership and responsibility.

Not all the boys pictured on these pages will become priests or Brothers, but they all have one thing in common — an interest in vocations and a desire to promote them by prayer and spreading knowledge of the variety of ways to serve, whether it be the diocesan priesthood or religious life.

Trips to seminaries and monasteries, films and talks make up the activities of this popular group.

Coyle is justly proud of its fifty priest graduates — twenty-seven serving in the diocese and the remainder serving in other dioceses and religious orders — and of the eighteen Holy Cross Brothers who are Coyle grads. May the prayers and interest of these boys fructify in adding to this already impressive record of Coyle High.

THE ANNUAL MAY VOCATION MASS

For the intention of religious vocations among high school students of the Taunton area, Bishop Connolly said Mass at St. Mary's in May for hundreds of students of Coyle, St. Mary's and Taunton High. Father Richard H. Sullivan, C.S.C., of Stonehill College, gave the sermon. Afterwards His Excellency posed with students from Taunton area schools.

The Biology Club has been designed for students who have completed their biology course and wish to further investigate in the science of living things. Since biology includes many different branches, each of which studies certain aspects of animal or plant life, Brother Albert decided to assist the members on making a survey of the animal kingdom. Most of the work consisted in detailed dissection. Those interested in embryology studied development in the frog and chick. Others preferred the study of heredity by crossing fruit flies. All members were taught how to take blood pressure and to identify blood types.

Members seeking information and advice about careers in medicine owe grateful thanks to Dr. Jerome McCaffrey for his interesting lectures and advice.

Today, in the middle of the twentieth century, we have within easy reach all the knowledge gained through the efforts of countless generations of biologists. With the proper instruction and guidance, it is our belief that the youth of today can establish themselves in one of the many divisions of the biological world. This is the purpose of the Coyle Biology Club.

Competing as a member of the Narragansett Interscholastic Debate League, this year's Debate Club was very much in contention for league honors. At the date of this writing they had a record of six wins against only two losses. They were victorious over Attleboro High, Dominican Academy, Durfee High, Holy Family High, Mount St. Mary Academy, and New Bedford High. They lost two close debates, one to DeLaSalle Academy and the other to Prevost High.

Well trained by their coach, Mr. Griffin, they defended both the negative and affirmative sides of the league's foreign aid topic.

This year also saw the start of Junior Varsity debating and the Jayvees, like the Varsity, had a winning record. From them will come experienced debaters for next season.

All that you see here is the product of almost a year's work; a time of wild imagining, sober realization, terrifying discoveries and bloodshot eyes. The '57 staff had hardly moved out when we moved in, the accumulation of a summer's dust ominously covering floor and desks.

"There is too much to be done, too many loose ends to gather together. Sure, twenty-four staffs had lived through this, but this year is different!"

By the middle of February any direction was up; any advancement, no matter how small, was tremendous progress. The big snow of mid-February delayed the arrival of glossies from the printer, but still we hung on.

But finally the last picture was taken, our obliging Mr. Holme had climbed the ladder for the last time. The business staff broke their piggy banks, and great quantities of coin of the realm belched forth to the satisfaction of the publisher and the astonished delight of the business manager.

We folded our dummy and stole away. The Viking had, like a stubborn child, been put to bed for the twenty-fifth time.

A YEAR'S WORK REWARDED WITH THE FINISHED BOOK

Under the direction of Brother James Derrig, C.S.C., this year's editions of The Warrior have more than measured up to those of the past. The new cafeteria, which is owned and operated by Mr. Boreri and Mr. Scanlon, has been subject to many changes, many of them for the better.

Coyle's OUTSTANDING MAN OF THE YEAR, David DeThomas, receives his award from Brother Eudes. Brother Christian, Vice Principal; Brother Philip, now on the faculty of Notre Dame International School in Rome, and Mr. and Mrs. DeThomas offer their congratulations.

Coyle's first Honor Night proved an overwhelming success and began what we hope will be a tradition at Coyle in the years to come.

On Wednesday evening, June 5th, 1957, forty-one students received awards for excellence in scholastic and co-curricular activities.

At each of the students' tables were his parents and a faculty member. As each man of distinction was presented an award, his parents and teacher were introduced to the guests present.

The speaker of the evening was Mr. John J. O'Neill, Coyle '37, former teacher at Coyle and presently a member of the faculty at Harvard University.

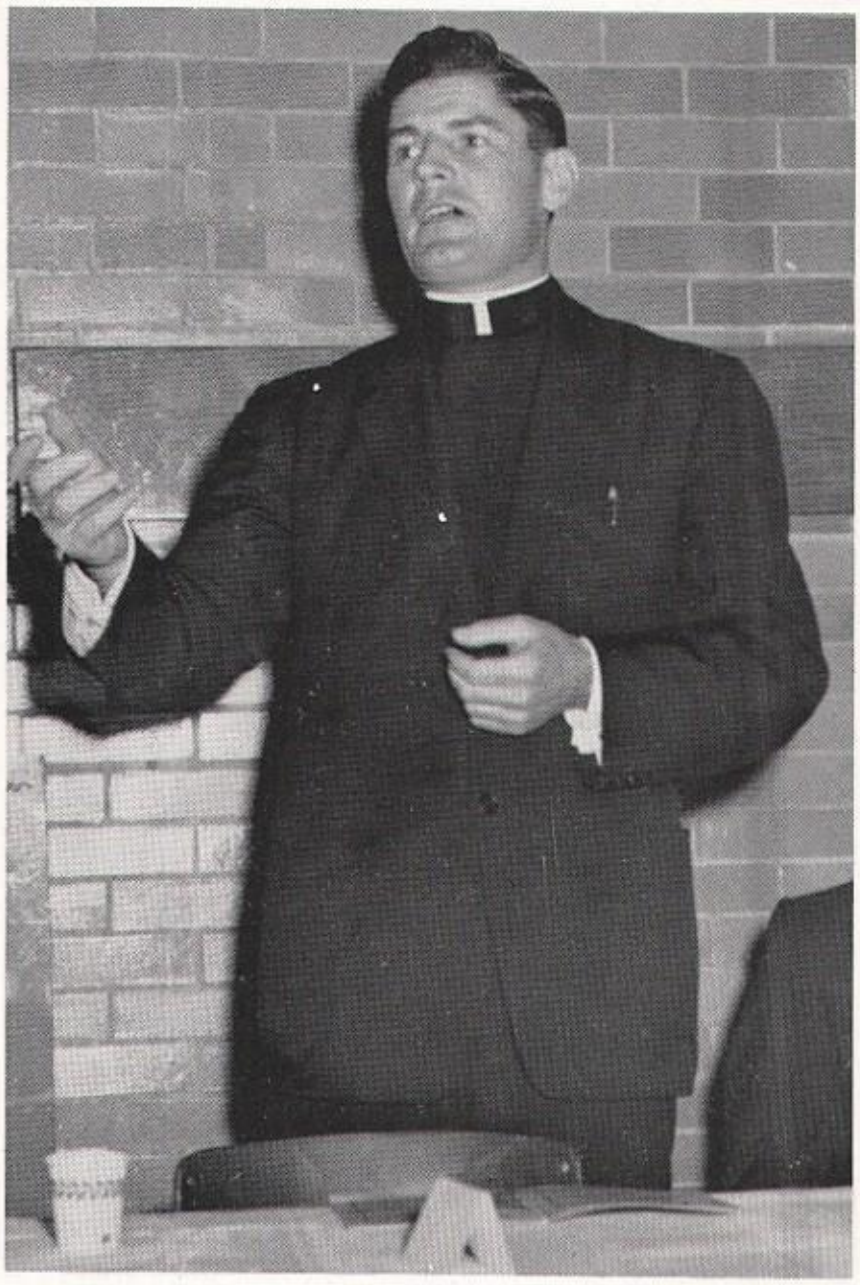
TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY TESTAMONIAL TO COACH JIM BURNS

Bishop Connolly congratulates Jim Burns on his twenty-fifth anniversary as Coyle's coach; Father George Kerr, the principal speaker, looks on.



Father George Kerr, former Boston College football star and All-American, spoke to an audience of six hundred friends of Coyle and Jim Burns.

In June, 1922, Jim Burns graduated from Notre Dame. After coaching at New Orleans' Holy Cross High—he gave H.C. its first undefeated season—he began his coaching career at Coyle, arriving with the first Brothers the year the school opened.

Thanksgiving Day, November 27, of this school year Coyle completed twenty-five years in interscholastic football by defeating in-town rival Taunton High—13-6. By this victory the Coyle Varsity presented its Silver Anniversary gift to Coach Burns—an undefeated and untied season.

Jim Burns has coached basketball and baseball during these twenty-five years and has come up with many victorious teams. Coyle teams during this period have met with success and recognition. In 1950 Coyle posted an 11-4 record in baseball and won the Bristol County Championship. In 1953 the Warriors won the State Class "A" Championship in the New England Catholic Tournament held at Lawrence, Mass. Just a few months ago the Blue and Gold came through again by winning the Class "A" Championship of the Eleventh Annual Bay State Tournament at Saugus, Mass.

Congratulations, Coach Burns, for your many successes and your dedicated service to the education and counseling of youth as a teacher, coach and friend to hundreds of Coyle boys.

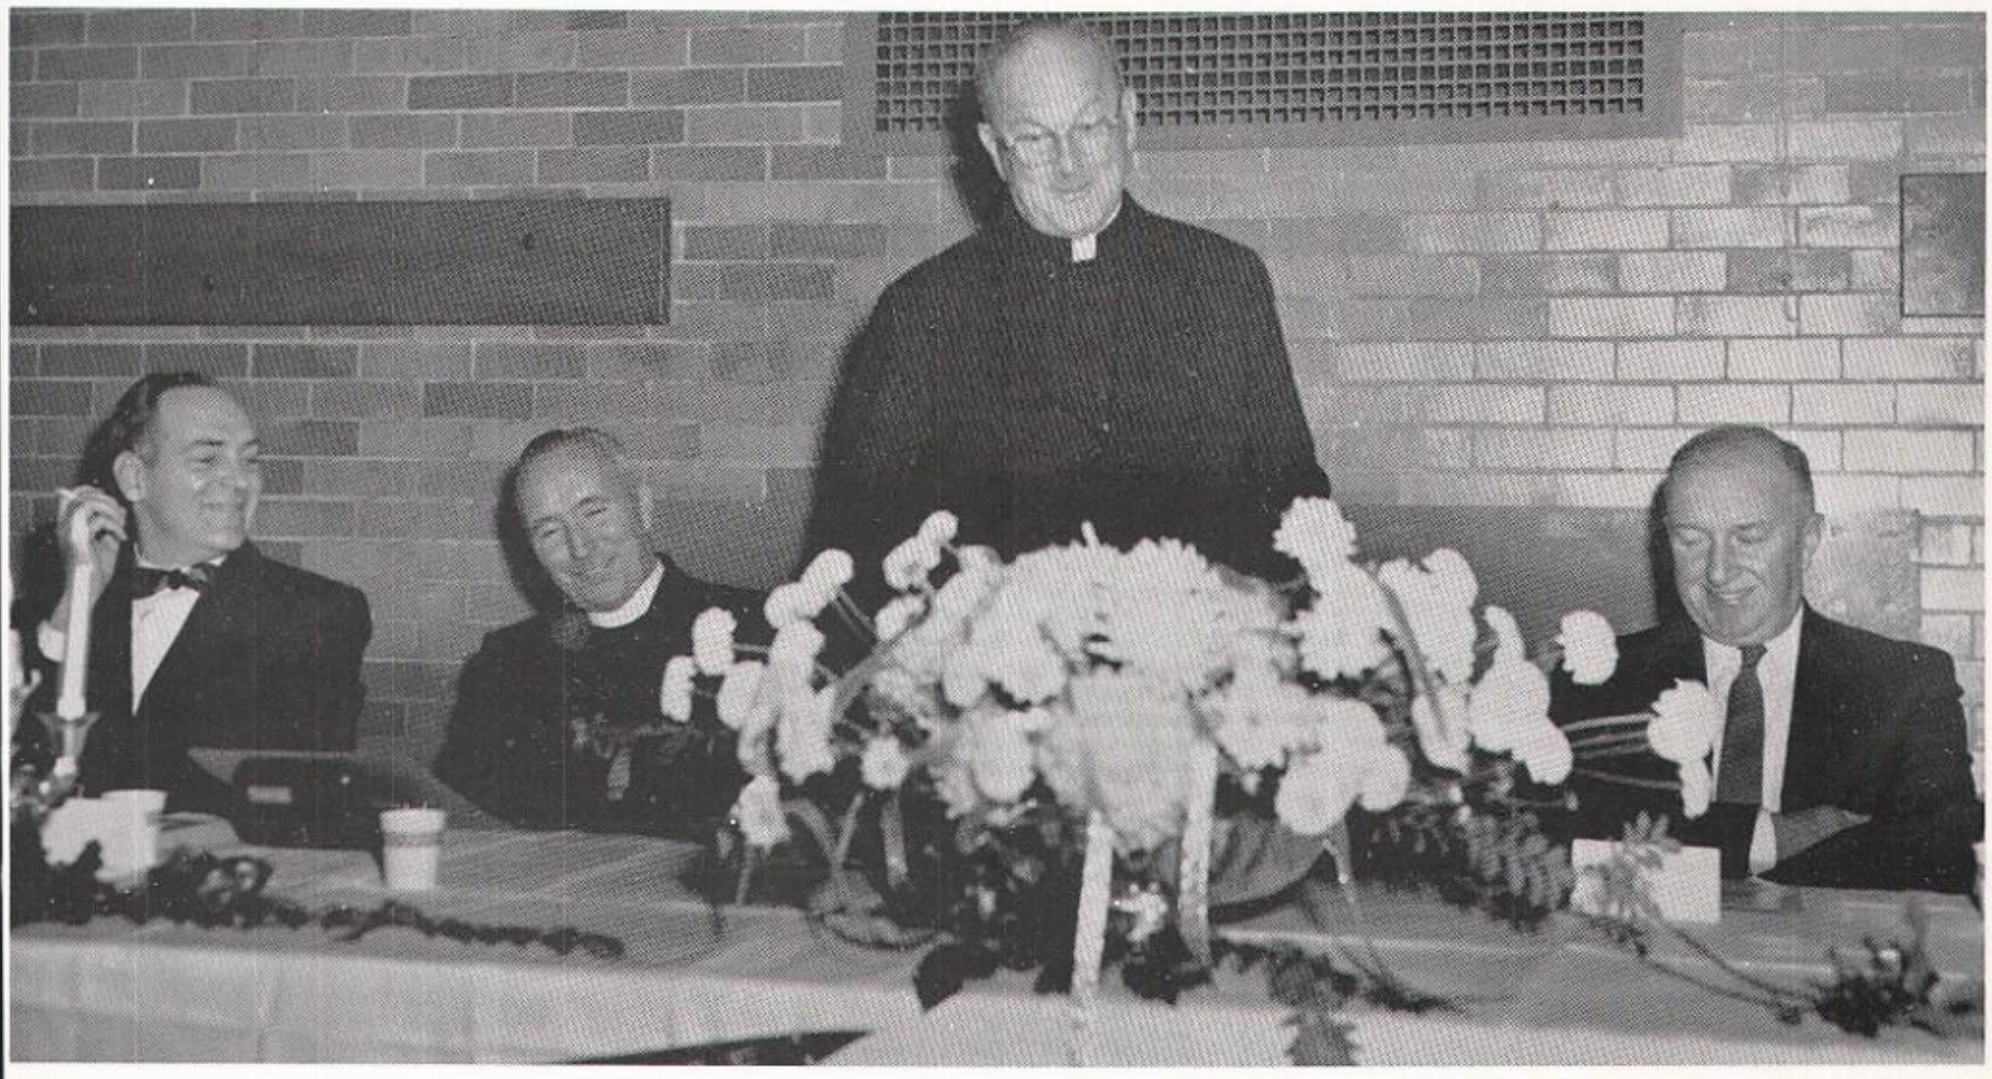
AND THE UNDEFEATED AND UNTIED FOOTBALL TEAM OF '58



A perennial booster of things Coyle is our beloved Bishop Connolly. Here he recounts some of his own memories of Coyle's sports achievements under Coach Burns.

FATHER MICHAEL JEDNAKOWSKI,
C.S.C.

During the summer of 1957, Father Michael, beloved Chaplain to the Holy Cross Brothers at Coyle, died.

Ordained at Notre Dame in 1935, Father Michael was for many years a parish priest in South Bend, Indiana, and Chicago, Illinois. Twelve years of his priestly life were spent as chaplain to the Holy Cross Brothers, six years at Fr. Gibault School, Terre Haute, Indiana, and six years here at Coyle.

THE COYLE MOTHERS

On Thursday evening, April 10, 1958, the Coyle Mothers Annual Bridge and Whist Party was held in the auditorium of Coyle High. The proceeds from this affair have always gone to the yearbook.

We would like nothing better than to be able to photograph all the mothers, but, finding this impossible, we have done the next best thing. These pictures were taken at one of the six meetings the mothers have to prepare for the party. The mothers pictured here have actively participated in making the Whist Party a grand success. We may have missed a few—not all could make the weekly meetings every time—but we want all of them to know how much we appreciate their kindness.

We want to especially thank Mrs. John Meunier, the General Chairlady of the Whist Party, for a magnificent job!

COYLE VS. BARNSTABLE

Coyle 6-7-13-12-38

Led by two lightning fast Junior backs, Ed Boyle, who scored three touchdowns, and Pete Bartek who scored two, the Warriors won their season's opener by trouncing Barnstable High, 38-0, at Hyannis. Quarterback Bob Freccero's passes set up three of the Warrior touchdowns, while the most spectacular play of the game was Pete Bartek's 70-yard interception-touchdown in the final seconds of play.

Although overshadowed by the swift elusive backfield, the Coyle line played an excellent game and did not allow Barnstable to get past the 50 until late in the game.

After a fairly even first half, the Warriors began to pull away from the "Red Raiders" in the final periods. Ed Boyle tallied his first six-pointer in the first period and another early in the second. Boyle and Freccero crossed the goal line in the third quarter, and Pete Bartek twice in the fourth. Pete Gazzola added two conversions to the total.

COYLE VS. STOUGHTON

After both teams battled scorelessly for three periods, the "Rubbertowners' " big offensive machine started to roll. They moved to the Coyle 15. On a second down, goal to go situation, Stoughton's big fullback, Tony Pires, drove to the Coyle two, where he was met with a bone-rattling tackle by Dave Yelle and Norm Racine. Pires fumbled and the ball was recovered by Yelle and Racine.

After the Warriors were unable to move the ball, Tony Correia booted the kick that turned the tide of the game. With the ball resting on Coyle's own 4-yard line, Correia, punting from within his own end zone, lifted a long high one downfield 72 yards to the Stoughton 22-yard line. After failing to move the ball, Stoughton punted to the 50-yard stripe, where Coyle took over. But a clipping penalty set the Warriors back to their own 35. On first down, Eddie Boyle tore off right tackle for 55 yards to the Stoughton 11, where on second down Quarterback Bob Freccero tossed a seven-yard pass to George Arguin in the end zone for the game's lone tally. Pete Gazzola added the extra point.

COYLE VS. ATTLEBORO

Coyle 6-7-7-7-27
Attleboro 7-0-0-0-7

After taking the opening kickoff and marching 58 yards, capped by Marshall Reilly's 4-yard TD plunge, Attleboro could do little else against the stout Warrior line, as Tony "Lefty" Correia "passed" the Warriors to their third straight victory.

The first Warrior tally of the day came when Eddie Boyle grabbed a 14-yard pass from Tony Correia and raced the remaining 40 yards to pay dirt. The second Warrior TD came midway through the second period. After Ed Boyle had ground out 17 yards up the middle of the Attleboro line and Bob Demers had made a spectacular catch of a Tony Correia aerial, Steve Turkalo grabbed another Correia pass on the twenty-yard line and went over for the score. Gazzola converted. The third period saw Correia once again take to the air for 22 yards and hit Ed Boyle on the Attleboro 28-yard line, after which he raced the remaining 38 yards into the end zone. Gazzola again converted. The final Coyle tally came late in the game on a 37-yard drive which featured another Correia-to-Boyle pass, which netted 17 yards, and some fine running by halfbacks Pete Bartek and George Arguin. The drive was capped by Correia's 1-yard plunge and Gazzola's point after.

COYLE VS. NORTH ATTLEBORO

Playing one of their best games of the year, Coyle romped over previously undefeated North Attleboro at the latter's home, Community Field.

After a scoreless first period, a capacity crowd saw five different Warrior backs cross the North goal line. The stout Warrior line held the "Northies" scoreless in addition to racking up a safety.

Moments before the first quarter ended, Gazzola recovered a "Red Rocketeer" fumble on the North 22 and eight plays later, in the second period, Ed Boyle carried over from the one-foot line. On the second play after the ensuing kickoff, North again fumbled on their own 42-yard line. With Boyle and Freccero alternating, Freccero topped the drive with a carry from three yards out. The game's longest run was a 58-yard sideline sprint on the third play of the second half by Pete Gazzola.

Coyle scored again in the third quarter when Ed McGovern "bulled" in from 1 yard out.

The Warriors added a touch of ignominy to the proceedings when Dave Yelle spilled North's quarterback, Denny Redding, in the end zone on an attempted punt. Pete Bartek scored the final Warrior touchdown on a 6-yard pass play from Tony Correia late in the fourth period.

COYLE VS. VOKE

Coyle 0-13-6-6-25
Voke 0-0-7-0-7

Sparked by Pete Bartek's 90-yard touchdown run on a kickoff return and the fine running of halfback George Arguin, the Warriors notched their fifth triumph of the season, 25-7, over New Bedford Voke at Sargeant Field.

After a scoreless first period, the Warriors took possession of the ball on the Artisan 36. On first down George Arguin scored the first Coyle TD of the afternoon by scampering 36 yards around left end for the score. Minutes later, after Arguin and Freccero had moved the ball from the Coyle 28 to the Voke 48 in four plays, Freccero carried the ball into the end zone and Gazzola converted.

After taking the opening kickoff in the third period, the Green and White, sparked by some smart quarterbacking by George McMullen, good pass receiving by Martin Gomes and fine running by "Scooter" Morris, moved the ball from their own 27 to the Coyle 3-yard line, whereupon John Camacho became the second man to score against Coyle in the season as he swept around his own left end. Morris then converted.

On the following kickoff the crowd watched Pete Bartek zig-zag his way 90 yards down the sideline for a TD. In the fourth period Ed Boyle wormed his way through the left side of the Voke line and galloped 39 yards for the TD.

COYLE VS. FAIRHAVEN

What was anticipated to be one of the top football games in the area turned into a one-sided run-away as the Warriors, undoubtedly playing their finest game of the season, routed Fairhaven's sailors, 35-0.

Coyle opened the scoring with a 41-yard scoring jaunt by fullback Pete Gazzola. After taking the opening kickoff at the start of the second half, the high-powered Warrior offensive team went into action as the Warriors marched 62 yards for their second TD. Six plays moved them to the Sailors' 35, where Bob Freccero threw a strike to Steve Turkalo, who drove to the 9. On second down Eddie Boyle snaked his way in and Gazzola converted. Moments later, after Fairhaven found tough Warrior line impenetrable, Coyle took over on the Saliors' 45-yard line, from where George Arguin twisted his way through the Saliors' line and scampered 45 yards for the score. Late in the third period Bob Freccero climaxed a sustained drive with a plunge into pay dirt from 1 yard out.

The final Coyle tally of the afternoon came under the command of sophomore quarterback Bill Hoyle, who did a brilliant job of moving the ball 52 yards. George Arguin again sprang loose, this time aided by a good block from Ted McGovern, going 14 yards for the score.

COYLE VS. DURFEE

Coyle's defense proved to be its best offense as the undefeated Burnsmen remained undefeated by blanking Durfee, 23-0, at Alumni Field in the Spindle City. All the Warrior points came as a result of heads-up defensive play. Coyle's three touchdowns were scored by Bob Freccero, who did a fine job at the helm.

The first two points of the game were registered when, on the third play of the game, Steve Turkalo caught a Durfee back in his own end zone. Early in the second period Fred Bartek recovered a Durfee bobble on the Hilltoppers' 21-yard stripe. After Coyle dropped the ball to the 8, Freccero on a keeper got inside the Durfee right end for the TD. The second TD came as a result of a blocked punt by Ted Reilly and a return of 15 yards by Kevin Welch to the 15. Freccero then duplicated his second period feat for the TD. The final Warrior tally was racked up in the fourth period after Norm Racine recovered another Durfee fumble. After Coyle had moved the ball 23 yards, Freccero climaxed the day's scoring with a dive over the line for the TD.

COYLE VS. TAUNTON

Taunton 0-0-6-0-6

In the season's climax, underdog Taunton surprised some fifty-seven hundred Turkey Day fans, as the fired-up Herringtowners rose to the occasion and completely outplayed the Warriors for the first two periods. Unable to post a single first down in the first half, while the Herringtowners' chalked up five, the "Warriors" showed the large gathering they were not to be beaten as they came roaring back in the second half. After receiving the second half kickoff on the 13-yard line, Taunton punted to their own 41; and when Coyle failed to gain the necessary yardage for a first down, Taunton took over again. On the first play from scrimmage, Taunton's speedy Co-Captain, George Hodgson, split tackle and end as he raced 69 yards for the score. The Warriors seemed enraged as they took the kickoff on their own 36-yard line and posted five first downs, as they marched 64 yards to the Orange and Black goal line, where Freccero scored the TD and Gazzola the extra point. In the fourth period, the Warriors took possession on their own 25. Four yards by Gazzola, 7 by Arguin, 8 by Boyle, and 6 more around end brought the ball to the 50. After George Arguin picked up nine yards to the Taunton 41, the speedy Pete Bartek raced 41 yards around his own right end for the score. Gazzola's try for the point after was blocked, and the Warriors topped their undefeated and untied season with a hard fought, well earned victory over Taunton.

A SPECIAL TRIBUTE TO THE LINEMEN

JOHN Q. PIGSKIN

"Old linemen never fly; they just pave the way." This sentiment, though vaguely reminiscent of General MacArthur's celebrated remark about antiquated military men, contains a core of truth that few football fans ever fully appreciate or even understand. Let's rephrase our thought, then. Perhaps we'll stimulate a spark of appreciation yet from the heart of John Q. Pigskin. "A backfield is only as good as the line in front of it." How does that sound, John? What? You say that you concur heartily? Excellent! But tell us, John, what play of that last Turkey Day encounter stands out most vividly in your mind? You say you can't decide between the fifty-yard run and the second touchdown pass; What about the blocking and tackling? Oh, you don't remember that too well. And of course, as you state, that's their job . . . It's beginning to look, my friend, as if we're rapidly returning to our point of origin—with the backfield garnering the headlines and the linemen filling up the breadlines.

At the risk of being dubbed a collective voice in the wilderness, we of the Viking sports staff would like to exercise our larynxes at this point in behalf of a particular group of men who might otherwise be consigned to quick and permanent oblivion by John Q. and his kind. We refer, if you haven't already surmised, to the eight regulars who made it possible for our backs to gambol and scoot and shoot (and whatever else backs are said to do) on eight successive occasions last fall—the 1957 edition of the Coyle High line. As individuals these eight men were admittedly superb. But as a unit they were simply invincible. What's more, unlike the politician who never has time to congratulate each of his campaign workers in person, we're going to extend our vote of gratitude to every one of them individually. Scanning the Warrior forward wall from the flanks inward, we find Steve Turkalo and Ted Reilly at ends; in the tackle slots, Dave Yelle and Kevin Welch; at (and on) guard, Chet Martin and Norm Racine; and in the center position, Tony Correia and John Levis. To all of them we offer our warmest thanks for a gruelling job magnificently performed.

FROSH SUMMARY AND STATISTICS

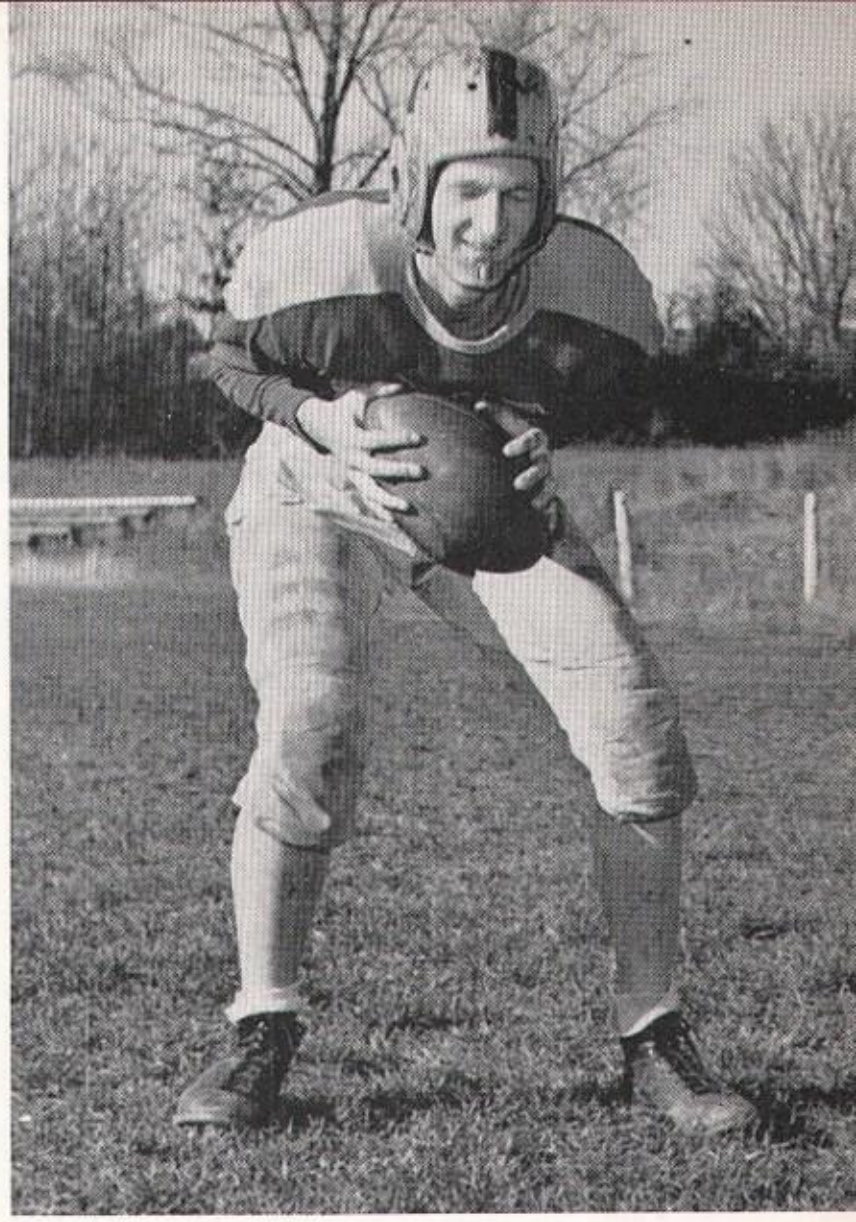
The 1957 version of the Coyle High Freshman football team turned in another winning year as usual. The season turned out to be an unexpectedly good one as pre-season observations doomed the then "talent hungry" Warrior cubs to a season of mediocrity.

Under the patient guidance of Brother John Stundon and Brother Thomas Gallagher, the undersized Coyle gridders turned in a 3-1-1 season, exceptionally good in view of the material at hand at the beginning of the year.

The main scoring punch of the Freshman club was massed behind the swift and rugged ball carrying of Dennis Phillipe. Denny broke the Coyle freshman scoring record of 76 points with his touchdown in the Taunton game to give him a season's total of 82 points on 13 touchdowns and four extra points, carries.

In spite of a size handicap, the Coyle club turned in their good record mainly through a fine team spirit with each man pulling together and bearing his burden of a sometimes very heavy load. The team started out the year with a 20-7 victory over North Attleboro. They crushed perennially powerful Somerset 33-6 and then battled a strong Archbishop Williams eleven to a 13-13 stalemate. The Frosh knocked off the Dighton JayVees 27-6 and finished out their season by dropping a close, 12-6, verdict to Taunton Frosh.



DENNY PHILLIPE, freshman high scorer

Freshman football, like every other freshman sport, should not be an end in itself. Rather, it should stimulate those with the talent and the desire to continue in team competition to approach their coming years of Varsity competition with confidence and determination. The real value of this year's Frosh football squad will be seen in the coming seasons when the members of the squad take their place on the Blue and Gold Varsity to do battle for their school.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

With only three lettermen returning, the prospects for the '58 basketball season looked none too promising. During the early part of the season the Warriors played with little experience and lack of height, but made up for it with plenty of hustle and fight. In mid-season they seemed to run out of gas, falling into a bad slump. As they picked up experience, near the end of the season, they regained their fighting spirit, playing very good ball.

After the regular season play the Warriors were entered in the Bay State Tournament. Little hope was held for them getting by the preliminary rounds. But they surprised the crowd by beating Braintree, Taunton and Malden for the State Class "A" Championship.

FROSH BASKETBALL

An uphill battle which resulted in a two point victory over undefeated Somerset High Frosh in the finals of the second Annual Bridgewater State Teachers College Ninth Grade Basketball Fourteen Team Tourney pretty well sums up the way the 1957-58 season went for the Coyle High Hoopsters.

Coaches Brother John Stundon and Brother Joseph Roos, blessed with a small but smooth operating squad of spirited frosh, saw their charges turn in a 17-4 season enroute to capturing the Ninth Grade Tourney Trophy for the second time in the two-year history of the championship playoff and the Orsine Trophy, emblematic of the City Champion.

The Coyle Cubs' spirited play resulted in their winning eight of their seventeen victories after having trailed their foes into even the final period. This type of play, this rugged determination never to give up, this was the attribute which made the Coyle Frosh a power to reckon with in Eastern Massachusetts freshman circles.

Once again, as in football, Denny Phillipe led the scoring parade. Denny, the tallest man on the squad, an even six-foot, paced the Warriors with 347 points. John Smith took runner-up spot with 233 points and a pair of Warriors finished in a near tie for third spot, Jerry Cunniff, with 165 points and Billy Hall, with 161.

FROSH CAPTURE CITY AND BRIDGEWATER TITLES

"Finest group of boys I've ever worked with. They never quit when the chips were down — real giant killers and deserving of the name Warriors."

BROTHER JOHN, C.S.C.
Coach

The Starting Five: D. Philippe, W. Hall, G. Cunniff, J. McAuley, J. Smith.
Missing: O. Smith.

The all-around team play actually told the story. When they had to, the Coyle club could throw up an unbeatable defense, based on hustle. This defense and hustle was responsible for the Warriors' three victories over in-town rival Taunton (the only three losses of the year for Taunton) and their tournament decisions over previously unbeaten Somerset (16-0) and Bridgewater (11-0).

As in football, this past year of Freshman competition should whet the appetites of the team members for further competition. These players are the ones to whom the school will look in the next three years to carry on the tradition of Coyle competition. If these players maintain their fine attitude and their unquenchable desire to play to the end, then what lies ahead has great promise.

FACULTY — STUDENT BASKETBALL GAME

Sparked by Frank Almeida's 19 pts., the Faculty edged the Coyle High Intramural Champs (Fall River) 44-40. Head Coach Jim Burns won the plaudits of the crowd for his fine playing ala Bob Cousy.

The game turned out to be close all the way, but it was the Faculty Five which managed to take an early lead and hang on throughout the game. Ted Reilly's 13 pts. kept the Fall River Club in the game. Although definitely out of shape, the Faculty Quintet came through with flying colors. Brother Joseph Roos (6'6") controlled the back boards while Brother Michel and Brother John Stundon combined with a fast-break routine which had style. Bob Barry looked like Bill Sharman at the foul line. Brother Thomas Gallagher, although scoring only one basket, put on a very impressive performance.

Diplomas were conferred on the evening of May 15th to one hundred-sixteen seniors.

"The object for which this school is erected and will be conducted is threefold: Christian development, training and direction of the young boy's body, mind and soul. It is not in the elementary schools that these precious possessions of youth are threatened—it is in the high school and college where minds are maturing, faculties awakening and habits being formed, shaping the youth's whole future life both in this life and in the next. The Monsignor Coyle High School will aim to give every reasonable attention to the boy's growing physically: it will spare nothing to give him the ability to conserve, direct and develop his spiritual soul—rising above all physical and mental make-up. In a word, nothing will be spared to afford opportunity for the acquirement—up to college—of a complete and perfect high school education."

Bishop James E. Cassidy announcing the opening of Coyle High School in 1932.
